An Equal Opportunity Employer

DEFINITION

Under general direction of the Court Executive Officer, assists in planning, organizing and directing all or a significant part of the Court's non-judicial activities and operations and, upon request, assists in providing judicial support services. Acts for the Court Executive Officer during absences. This position provides direct support to the Court Executive Officer and Judicial Officers and, under the direction of the Court Executive Officer, is responsible for program development and coordination, directing strategic initiatives of the Court and planning for Court activities in both operations, administrative and judicial support areas of the Court. This position is distinguished from the Court Supervisor in that the latter is responsible for one or more functions of operational units of the Court. This position has overall management authority and responsibility for all non-judicial operations of the Court and is distinguished from the Court Executive Officer position in that the latter has overall administrative authority of all Court operations, including judicial and non-judicial. This position exercises direct and indirect supervision over the Administrative Assistant position and may assist in the supervision and management of workload and clerk staff in the absence of the Court Supervisor and Court Executive Officer.
