An Equal Opportunity Employer

Please note: The Superior Court is establishing an eligibility list from this recruitment which may be used to fill both temporary and permanent vacancies. Please mark your interest clearly on your employment application as to your desire for temporary or permanent employment or both.

Please see Special Note under Minimum Qualifications:

The completed Supplemental Application on the last two pages of this flyer must be submitted with the completed Job Application and a current Typing Certificate in order to be considered for this position.

THE POSITION

Under close and general supervision, performs a variety of legal processing, public contact, and general clerical support duties, and may perform some courtroom clerk duties.

Court Clerk I

This is the entry level in the Court Clerk series. This class is distinguished from the higher class of Court Clerk II in that the latter is the journey-level class, whereas the Court Clerk I is an entry and training class. Positions in this class may perform some courtroom clerk duties; however, the focus of their duties is legal processing. As experience is acquired, the incumbent performs duties with increasing independence. Some positions may remain at the Court Clerk I level; however, most incumbents at the Court Clerk I level advance to Court Clerk II after six months of satisfactory performance and approval from the supervisor. The Court Clerk I receive close supervision from a Supervising Court Clerk and may receive training and assignments from a Court Clerk II or Court Clerk III.

Court Clerk II

This is the journey level in the Court Clerk series. Positions in this class are flexibly staffed and are typically filled by advancement from the Court Clerk I level, or, when filled from the outside, require prior clerical experience in a court setting. Prior to appointment to Court Clerk II, an employee must be able to perform the full range of duties at the journey level and meet the qualification standards of the higher class. Court Clerk II is distinguished from the higher class of Court Clerk III in that the latter is the advanced journey level in the series, provides lead work assistance and performs highly complex clerical work with a great degree of independence. The Court Clerk II receives general supervision from a Supervising Court Clerk and may receive training and assignments from a Court Clerk III.
